LIGHTING

The lighting design world has also come strong on the interior design trends for 2017. For the next season we will be seeing a lot of out of the box lamps, as well as some geometric and nature-inspired lighting designs.

Another tendency that is gaining strength and getting more and more followers is the smart lighting trend. Versatile and up to date with today's world, smart lighting can create unique ambiances and elevate any modern home design. Let's start exploring the latest lighting trends!

GEOMETRIC

Geometric lighting is a huge trend for this Spring, home decor-wise. It's not the first time we're hearing about these designs, nor it is the first time we're seeing geometric-patterned furniture. However, this might just take lighting design to a whole new level. Geometric lighting tends to be simple, with clean lines and very easy to use. See below some of our favorite inspirations…

If you're into a more classic or mid-century style and don't want to go overboard with your interior decor, this geometry-inspired lighting design by DelightFULL might just be what your spring bedroom has been waiting for. Get to know more about this particular piece here.

NATURE-INSPIRED

Clearly inspired by tree branches, this design by Splyt can be added to, in order to build unique and different lighting designs. This reflects nature in its purest form, where everything is one of a kind.

Another great example of how nature-inspired lighting designs can transport us somewhere else. In this case, the Ivete floor lamp by Essential Home takes us to Brazil and its hot rainforests.

Another very obviously nature-inspired design is the Miranda table lamp by Essential Home. Both their designs take us to the tropics and the good weather, so they couldn't fit in more with this Spring trend.

Everyone knows this very famous lighting design. Heracleum by Bertjan Pot is fully inspired by the homonymous flower heracleum and it creates the most majestic, simple and easy vibe for any modern or scandinavian home. A must have for the new season!

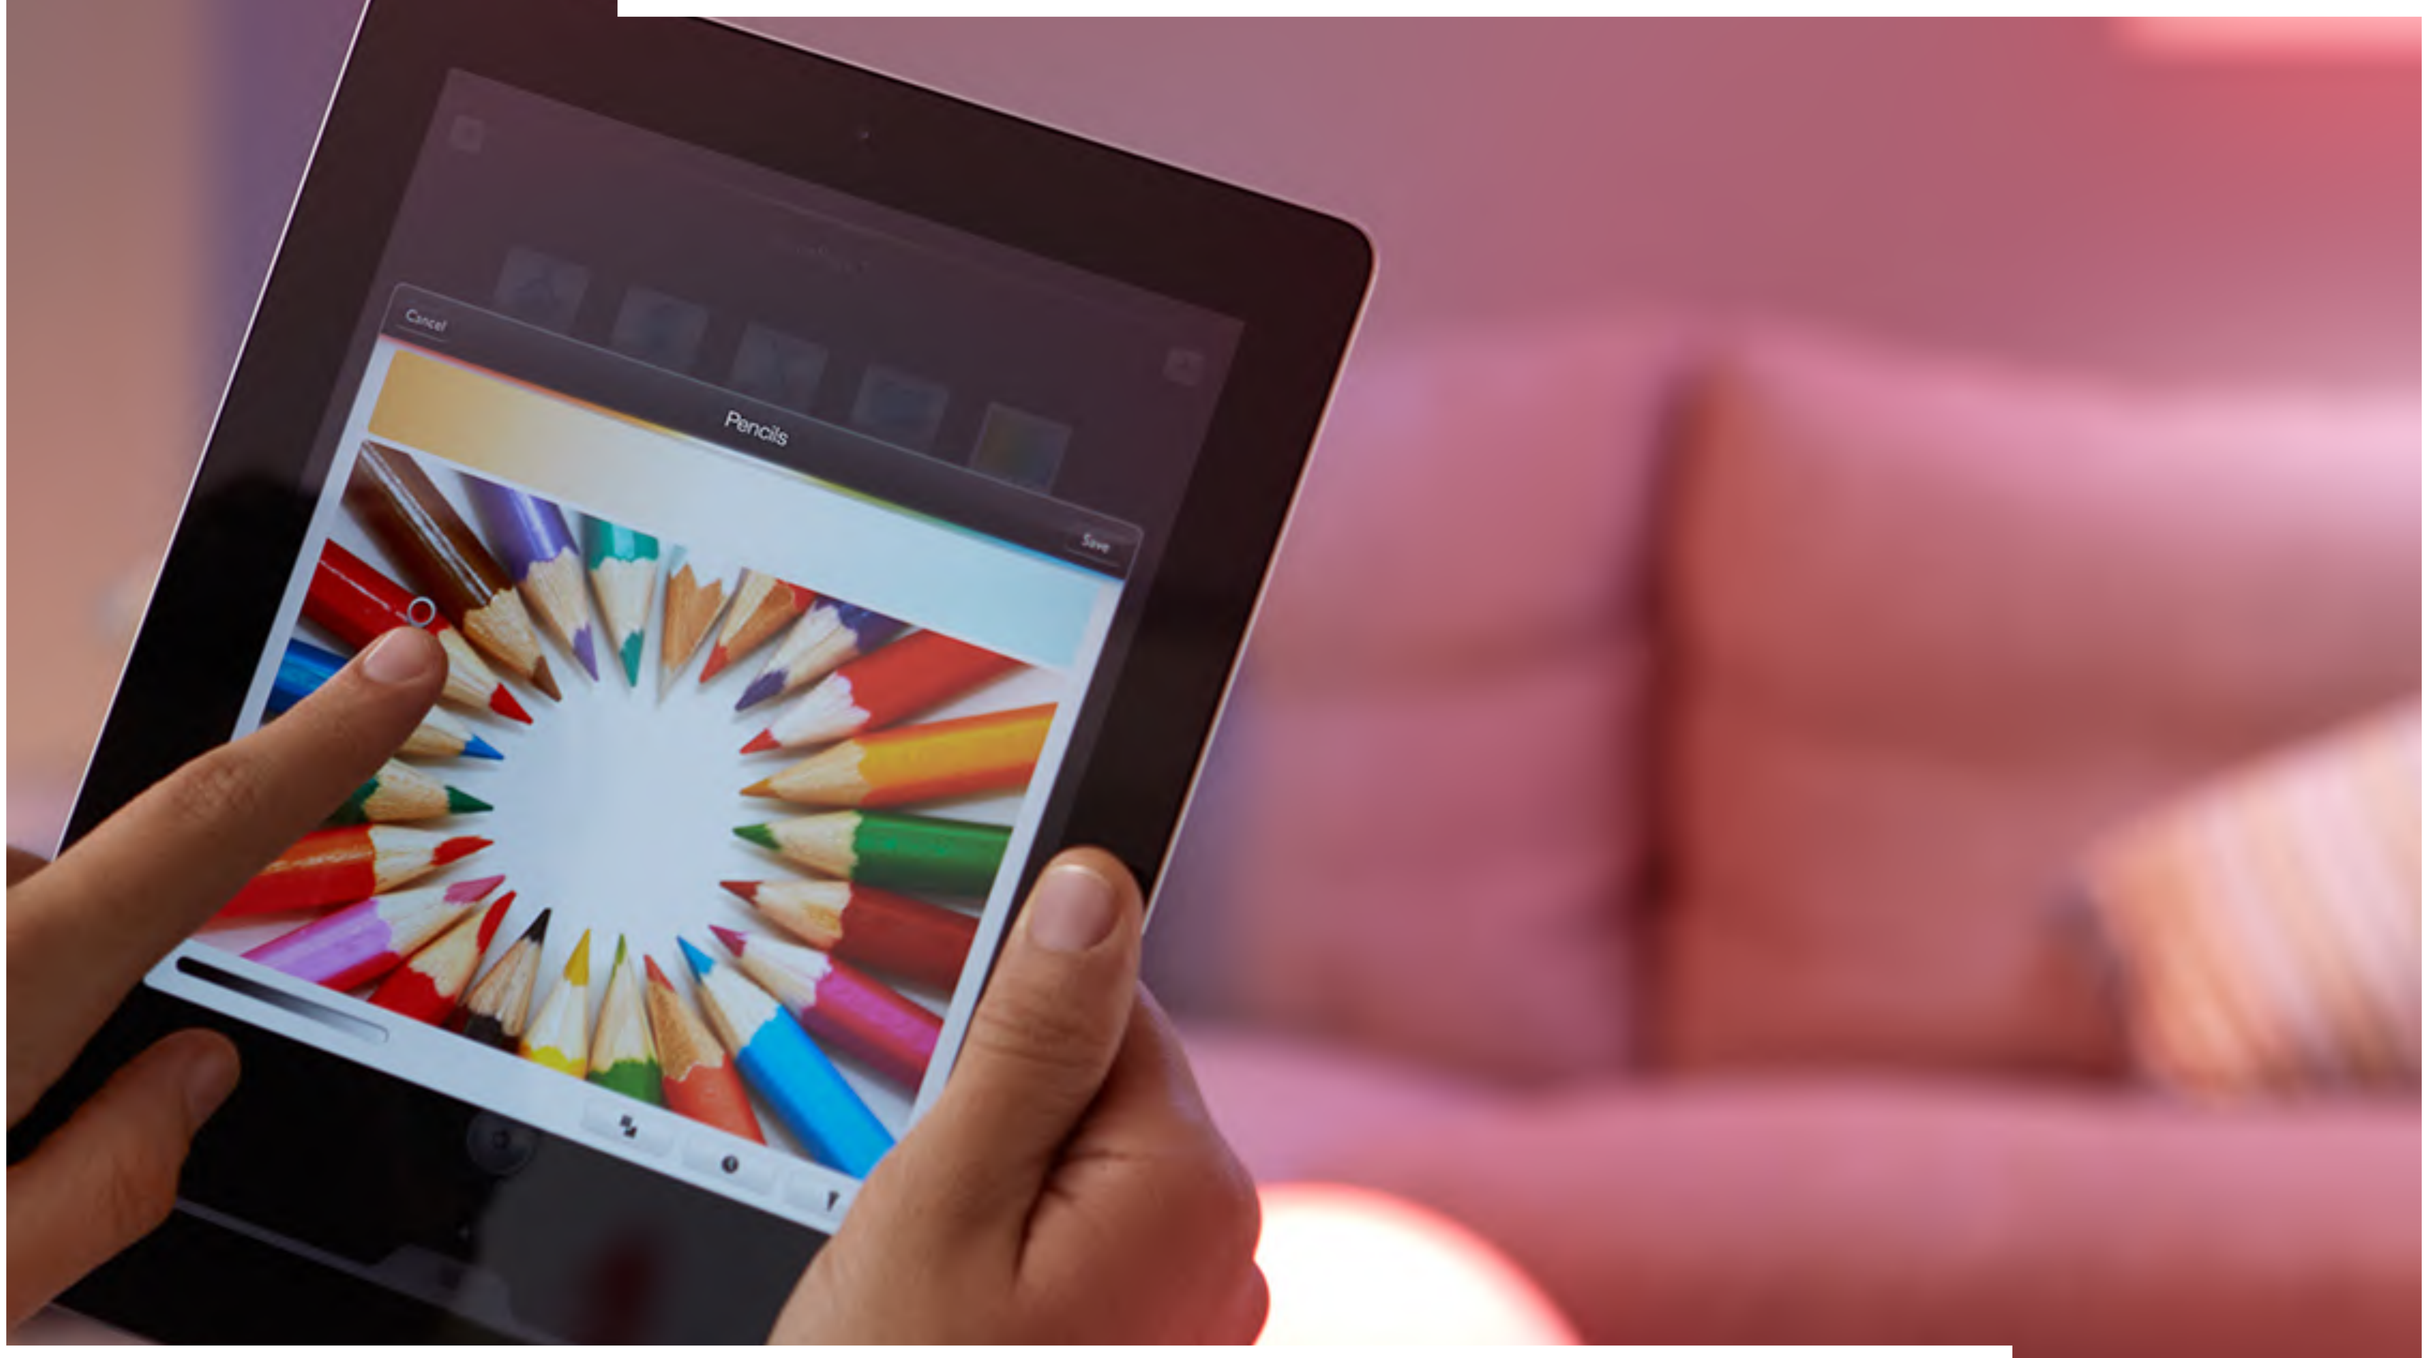
SMART LIGHTING



This trend's buzz has been around for quite some time now. However, it seems that this Spring, it will be it! This Spring, you'd better make sure to get your hands on a smart light bulb. One of the great things about is that, it not only can create any ambiance you desire, it is also adaptable to any lamp and room. Smart lighting lets you create any setting and any ambiance you might need. In fact, you can choose any color from a full spectrum and create the right atmosphere for a Spring even with friends.

LED's are key, since all the smart light bulbs are LED's. Aside from normal lightbulbs you can add LED strips to your furniture, or even to your stairs and create a nice and easy glow for your home decor.

Let your lights know when to wake you up, or when you're getting home. They'll automatically turn themselves on and everything will be set for you to start your day, or relax by your living room window, with a cool Spring breeze.

QUIRKY

This is Cosmo. Cosmo is a DelightFULL suspension lighting design inspired by the atomic golden age in the 60s. It's a very unique piece that, as you can see, can be used with strong colors, much associated with the Spring.

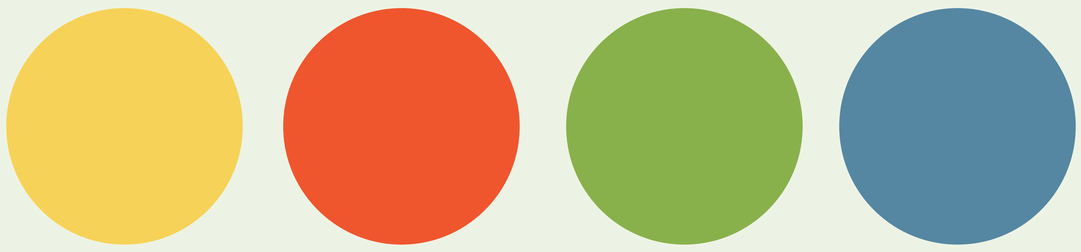
COLORS



COLORS

Here are the top 10 colors for spring 2017 elected by Pantonte Spring Color Report. These colors are going to be essential for the season and all of them reflect nature, sunny days, fresh air and everything that captures the fully essence of this stunning time of the year.

GREENERY

One of the biggest trends for this season is going to be, unmistakably, Greenery. The pantone color of the year has coincidentally the same meaning as spring. Both of them represent rejuvenation, refreshment, rebirth, renewal and regrowth and evoke thoughts of flowering, nature and fresh beginnings.

Greenery is perfect for your home décor. This color full of hopefulness will transform your space into one without stress and with a strong connection with nature.

Lack of light and chill air will not be an issue for this season. Green upholstery, fresh green furniture, botanical wallpapers are some of the many ways to bring the outdoors in and get ready for the best spring ever.

From lime green to emerald, greenery works in perfect harmony with several shades of green, especially if you prefer to use it in small doses.

Greenery fits perfectly in any division of your home. In the kitchen, a few herbs will definitely make a statement, keeping things fresh and lively in this time of the year.
